A haunting mystery that will grip your soul

As darkness descends upon Willow Creek, a young woman named Kitty Williams disappears without a trace. Her enigmatic past and a trail of unanswered questions leave the townsfolk in a state of unease. Enter Detective Jack Hayes, a seasoned investigator with a troubled past, who is tasked with unraveling the truth behind Kitty's disappearance.

As Hayes delves deeper into the investigation, he uncovers a web of secrets and supernatural occurrences that defy explanation. Whispers of a vengeful spirit and a sinister curse echo through the town, casting a shadow over the lives of its inhabitants. With each step closer to the truth, Hayes finds himself entangled in a dangerous game where the lines between reality and the paranormal blur.

A cast of characters that will haunt your nightmares

In the eerie world of Day of the Dead Kitty Williams, characters emerge from the shadows, each with their own secrets and motivations. From the enigmatic Kitty Williams, whose disappearance sets the events in motion, to the troubled Detective Hayes, who battles his own inner demons, the characters in this story are as complex as they are haunting.

As Hayes investigates Kitty's disappearance, he encounters a cast of suspects with dubious intentions. There's the enigmatic medium, Madame Celeste, who claims to communicate with the dead; the reclusive artist, Vincent Blackwood, whose cryptic paintings seem to hold hidden clues; and the enigmatic town mayor, Edward Blackwood, who hides a dark secret behind his charming facade.
