Peppa and George love picking apples. They find big apples, small apples, red apples, and green apples. They even find some apples that are shaped like hearts! Peppa's little brother, George, is so excited that he can't stop giggling.

After they have picked a basket full of apples, Peppa and her family take a break to eat some of their delicious snacks. They have apple pie, apple juice, and fresh apples. They all agree that apple picking is the best way to spend a fall day.

On the way home, Peppa and her family sing apple-picking songs. They are so happy to have spent the day together, and they can't wait to do it again next year.
