

Forty Days in Egypt in the Time of Corona: An Unforgettable Journey Through History, Culture, and Faith

By Kevin J. Mitchell

In the spring of 2020, as the world was gripped by the COVID-19 pandemic, I embarked on an extraordinary pilgrimage to Egypt. For forty days, I traveled through this ancient land, exploring its timeless ruins, vibrant cities, and sacred sites. My journey was not without its challenges—the pandemic had brought about unprecedented travel restrictions and social distancing measures—but it was also a time of profound discovery and transformation.

In this book, I share my experiences of traveling in Egypt during this unprecedented time. Through stunning photography and evocative prose, I invite you to join me on a journey that will transport you to the heart of this ancient civilization. You will witness the grandeur of the Great Pyramids of Giza, the splendor of the Valley of the Kings, and the vibrant chaos of modern-day Cairo. You will meet the people of Egypt, from friendly locals to learned scholars, and learn about their lives, their culture, and their faith.

But this book is more than just a travelogue. It is also a meditation on history, faith, and the human spirit. In the face of a global pandemic, I found myself drawn to the timeless wisdom of ancient Egypt. I explored the teachings of the pharaohs, the beliefs of the Coptic Christians, and the Sufi mysticism of Islam. And I discovered that, even in the darkest of times, there is always hope.

Forty Days in Egypt in the Time of Corona is a book for anyone who is interested in history, culture, faith, or travel. It is a book that will inspire you, challenge you, and ultimately, transform your understanding of the world.
