Passover: The Lamb of God Sacrificed

The Passover, celebrated in the spring, commemorates the Israelites' liberation from Egyptian slavery. On this night, a lamb was sacrificed and its blood applied to the doorposts of Jewish homes, protecting them from the plague of death that struck Egypt. This lamb symbolizes Jesus Christ, the ultimate Passover Lamb, who was sacrificed to redeem us from the bondage of sin.

Unleavened Bread: A Life Free from Sin

The Feast of Unleavened Bread follows immediately after Passover. It represents the Israelites' journey out of Egypt, leaving behind the leaven (yeast) that symbolizes sin. Similarly, Jesus Christ, our Unleavened Bread, enables us to live a life free from the burden of sin.

Pentecost: The Outpouring of the Holy Spirit

Fifty days after Passover, Jews celebrate Pentecost, commemorating the giving of the Law to Moses on Mount Sinai. This feast also symbolizes the outpouring of the Holy Spirit on the disciples of Jesus, empowering them to spread the gospel to the world.

Feast of Trumpets: Announcing the Messiah's Return

In the autumn, the Feast of Trumpets is observed. Its shofar (ram's horn) blasts signify a call to repentance and announce the coming of the Messiah. Jesus Christ, our trumpet-blower, will return to gather His people and establish His kingdom.

Yom Kippur: Atonement for Sin

The Day of Atonement (Yom Kippur) is the most solemn holiday in the Jewish calendar. It involves fasting, prayer, and repentance for sins. This feast foreshadows Jesus Christ as our High Priest, who made the ultimate atonement for our sins through His sacrifice.

Sukkot: Tabernacles and God's Presence

The Feast of Tabernacles (Sukkot) celebrates God's provision and protection during the Israelites' wilderness wanderings. In this feast, Jews dwell in temporary shelters (sukkot) as a reminder of their dependence on God. Sukkot also prophesies the future Messianic kingdom, where God will dwell with His people eternally.

THE SEVEN FEASTS OF ISRAEL AND THE HEBREW CALENDAR

Israel's feasts are not merely historical commemorations but prophetic blueprints revealing the coming of the Messiah. Through these feasts, we can trace the unfolding story of redemption, from the sacrifice of the Passover Lamb to the ultimate establishment of God's kingdom. Understanding these feasts deepens our appreciation of Jesus Christ as the fulfillment of God's plan and our hope for salvation.
