Meet the Characters Who Shaped a Nation

Ivan the Terrible (1530-1584)

Ivan IV, known as Ivan the Terrible, was a complex and contradictory figure. He was a brilliant military strategist who expanded the Russian empire, but his reign was also marked by paranoia, violence, and brutality. Known for his violent temper and erratic behavior, Ivan instituted a reign of terror known as the Oprichnina.

Catherine the Great (1729-1796)

Catherine II, known as Catherine the Great, was one of Russia's most successful rulers. She was a patron of the arts and sciences and expanded the Russian empire through military conquests. During her reign, Russia reached its peak as a great power in Europe.

Vladimir Putin (1952-present)

Vladimir Putin has been the President of Russia since 2000. A former KGB officer, Putin has established a strong authoritarian rule in Russia. Under his leadership, Russia has re-emerged as a major world power.

Unveiling the Past, Inspiring the Future
