For over a decade, this beloved festival has captivated audiences with its intimate gatherings, thought-provoking discussions, and inspiration-igniting encounters. From the moment you step into San Miguel's charming embrace, you will be enveloped in a literary atmosphere that lingers long after the festival ends.

A Rich Tapestry of Literary Luminaries

Solamente En San Miguel's impressive roster of authors and speakers reads like a literary who's who. Renowned authors such as Pulitzer Prize-winner Junot Díaz, bestselling novelist Isabel Allende, and acclaimed poet Louise Erdrich have graced the festival's stage, sharing their insights and captivating audiences with their words.

Beyond the big names, the festival also shines a spotlight on emerging writers, giving them a platform to share their voices and connect with readers. From poetry readings to book signings, you'll have the opportunity to discover new authors and broaden your literary horizons.

Delve into the Heart of San Miguel

The literary celebration extends beyond the festival's official events. Immerse yourself in the vibrant literary scene of San Miguel de Allende by visiting the numerous independent bookstores, attending open mics, and engaging with the local literary community.

Stroll through the winding streets and discover hidden gems, such as the Casa del Escritor (House of the Writer), a sanctuary for writers and a treasure trove of literary artifacts. Allow the town's beauty and history to inspire your creativity and ignite your imagination.

A Transformative Literary Journey

Solamente En San Miguel is more than just a festival; it's a transformative literary journey. Surrounded by fellow book lovers, you'll find yourself immersed in conversations that stimulate your mind and expand your perspectives.

Attend workshops led by acclaimed authors, where you can hone your writing skills and receive invaluable feedback. Connect with other writers, share ideas, and gain a fresh perspective on your own writing. The festival provides a sanctuary where you can nurture your love of literature and grow as a writer and a reader.
