The TOEFL Sentence Completion Test consists of 30 to 40 multiple-choice questions. Each question presents an incomplete sentence with four possible answer choices. Your task is to choose the option that best fits the sentence grammatically and semantically.

The incomplete sentences cover a wide range of academic topics, including social sciences, humanities, physical sciences, and biological sciences. Questions range from straightforward vocabulary gaps to more complex constructions involving idioms, phrasal verbs, and advanced grammar.

Developing Winning Strategies for the Sentence Completion Test
