Attention, all Big Nate enthusiasts! Prepare yourself for a double dose of laughter and adventure as Big Nate Top Dog Two In One hits the shelves. This captivating collection combines two beloved books, Big Nate Goes for Broke and Big Nate On a Roll, delivering an irresistible package of comic chaos that will have you in stitches from cover to cover.

Join Nate Wright, the irrepressible middle school prankster, as he embarks on his ultimate quest: to become the top dog. From hilarious misadventures to witty one-liners, Nate and his loyal crew of friends will keep you entertained every step of the way.

In Big Nate Goes for Broke, Nate's determination to win the school's annual talent show sparks a series of side-splitting schemes that will leave you breathless. Witness Nate's attempts to impress Jenny Jenkins, his unrequited crush, as he tries to outshine the competition with his infamous prank-filled performances.

The laughter continues in Big Nate On a Roll, where Nate's insatiable appetite for adventure leads him to create his very own school newspaper, The Daily Dish. With his trusty sidekick, Francis Pope, by his side, Nate uncovers the secrets and scandals of P.S. 38 and dishes out his signature brand of humor along the way.

But Nate's quest for the top dog title is not without its challenges. From rivalry with the ever-annoying Chad Applewhite to the perils of detention, Nate navigates the treacherous waters of middle school with his head held high and a prank up his sleeve.

Written by the talented Lincoln Peirce, the creator of the widely acclaimed Big Nate comic strip, Big Nate Top Dog Two In One encapsulates the essence of childhood, friendship, and the undeniable power of laughter. Peirce's sharp wit and masterful storytelling will transport you back to the hilarious and unforgettable days of middle school, making this book a must-read for readers of all ages.
