The Birth of a Phenomenon

In the heart of the 1990s, a revolution in plush toys was brewing. Ty Warner, the visionary founder of Ty Inc., dreamed of creating exceptional stuffed animals that would capture the hearts of generations. Inspired by the endearing bean-filled beanbags, he introduced the concept of Beanie Babies in 1993. These adorable animals, with their expressive eyes, endearing smiles, and velvety fabric, quickly became an overnight sensation.

As the Beanie Baby craze swept the nation, collectors sought after these plushy treasures, eagerly searching for the elusive rarities and coveted misprints. In response to the growing demand, Ty Inc. expanded its offerings, introducing Beanie Boos in 1997. These enchanting characters, characterized by their distinct big eyes and glittery accents, became instant favorites, captivating hearts young and old.
